<h3>HERITAGE SIGNIFICANCE</h3>              This whole farm group is of heritage interest in itself, and because it represents the settlement of the Neale's Flat area by German farming families in the late nineteenth century; Neales Flat at that time was more populous than Eudunda, but little evidence remains of that community now. Almost all the farm buildings are well-preserved (the straw-thatched stone and mud sheds still in use for hay storage). The original pug and pine cottage, which probably dates from the 1870s, is very well-preserved, including the hessian remains of the ceiling. Two later mud and stone buildings stand near the cottage as well as a stone tank and the ruins of an underground room. There is also a large, dry dam and what was once a wooden-paling fenced garden.                         The site was known as Ziegeler's corner, as the Ziegeler family lived here from 1891 (Ziegeler was also a blacksmith, and walked daily to work at Eudunda).           		<h3>LOCATION</h3> Address              Town Neales Flat              Postcode              Section 339              Hundred Dutton              County              L.G.A.
