REGISTER NOMINATION REPORT

WEST'S COFFEE PALACE

(FORMERLY GRANTS COFFEE PALACE AND AUSTRAL STORES)

Date:

2 June, 1982

SUMMARY

This report is prepared as part of the programme of evaluating items listed on the Register of the National Estate for inclusion on the Register of State Heritage Items.

Historically, West's Coffee Palace is a significant part of the commercial development of Hindley Street at the turn of the century, and was built by (former Councillor) Leopold Conrad in 1903.

Architecturally, West's Coffee Palace is important because it is an excellent and rare example of the Edwardian Free Style of Architecture which was designed by the prominent Adelaide architect A.S. Conrad.

Environmentally, West's Coffee Palace is important because it establishes and reinforces the vibrant Hindley Street atmosphere by both, its architecture and use. It is also a well known visual and historical landmark.

The Integrity, of the building is reasonable, the major alteration being the removal of the original post supported verandah which was replaced by a cantilevered one in the 1960's. The original shopfronts have also been removed.

West's Coffee Palace is currently listed on the Classified List of the National Trust (1973) and on the Register of the National Estate (1976).

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that West's Coffee Palace be included on the Register of State Heritage Items, and that it be categorized Al, A2, H1, H2.

WEST'S COFFEE PALACE, 104-120 HINDLEY ST., ADELAIDE

As a result of the somewhat unplanned development of Rundle and Hindley Streets as the major retail and commercial streets of Adelaide, owners of land along this axis built terraces of shops and established businesses which flourished with the growth of the city.

One notable entrepreneur was Leopold Conrad, who started his business as a butcher and smallgoods manufacturer in Hindley Street in 1869. Conrad came to Adelaide from Germany as a young man, and by the 1890's had risen to sufficient prominence in city affairs to serve on the Adelaide City Council as the representative for Young Ward in 1892-1894. He owned a large house on East Terrace and also 5,000 acres of grazing land around the State.

Adelaide City Council assessment notes state that in 1902 Conrad's Hindley Street shops were pulled down and that at the end in group of twelve shops and dwellings had replaced the earlier structure/s. Conrad named the whole group the Austral Stores, and the building was designed by Albert Selmar Conrad, eldest son of the owner. Tenders for the building were called in the Register on January 1, 1903.

Albert S. Conrad had spent five years in an apprenticeship with Daniel Garlick and then worked in the Works and Buildings Department of the South Australian Government before setting up his own practice in 1893. (One easily located house designed by Albert Selmar Conrad, at a later date, is on the corner of Frome Road and Mackinnon Parade, North Adelaide).

In 1906 a typical range of tenants in the Austral Stores included two bakers and confectioners, a tailor, a clothing manufacturer, a dressmaker, a cabinetmaker, a pharmaceutical chemist, two saddlers as well as Leo Conrad's business and yards behind.

Jonathon Grant, who had been conducting very successful Dining Rooms across the road at 103-107 Hindley Street moved into the Austral Stores in 1908 and set up Grant's Coffee Palace. Coffee Palaces were an established tradition in Adelaide by this stage. The temperance movement had strong political and moral force particularly after 1886 when the Women's Christian Temperance Union was founded, and many Coffee Palaces based on this temperance philosophy could be found in Adelaide. Over a period of time the functions of Coffee Palaces had altered slightly and by the 1900's they provided cheap accommodation with a few more frills than a boarding house, but were still unlicensed and so were not classed as hotels. They were apparently particularly popular with country visitors to the city.

The second level verandah, which is evident in the S.A. Archives' view of the building in 1908, was probably added when Grant converted part of the Austral Stores to his Coffee Palace needs. Remnants of the lettering which spelled out Austral Stores can be seen now on the central facade of the building as the upper verandah has been removed.

A change of management of the Coffee Palace took place in 1919, when John West moved from the Federal Coffee Palace in North Terrace (the Grosvenor Hotel is now on this site) to take over the management of Grant's. John West was born in Beechworth, Victoria, in 1861 and had come to South Australia in 1900. West was a Justice of the Peace and his obituary appeared in the Honorary Magistrate after his death in 1926.

West's Coffee Palace was listed in the Directories as part of the Austral Stores until 1921 and then the Stores classification was dropped and each of the tenants/owners was listed separately with their own street number. By 1924 the list of businesses had changed little; tailor, drapers, Coffee Palace, bulk stores and stables, timber and iron merchant, land and commission agents, bookseller and stationer, saddler, and laundry.

When John West died his widow Mrs. Agnes West took over the management of the Coffee Palace, and his family continued to run the accommodation side of the business.

Over time the building has been subdivided, the shops (of three levels each) have been sold separately.

In 1960 modernisation took place, and the ornate verandahs and shopfronts were replaced with the current fittings.

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN HERITAGE ACT, 1978

Entry of Items on the Register of State Heritage Items

There has been an increased community awareness of the need to protect those buildings and features of our State which reflect our cultural heritage. The South Australian Government has recognised that awareness by passing the South Australian Heritage Act, 1978, for which the Minister for Environment and Planning is responsible. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, the Register of State Heritage Items is being compiled.

Where the Minister considers that an item (defined as any land, building or structure) that is not on the Register is part of the physical, social or cultural heritage of the State and that the item is of significant aesthetic, architectural, historical or cultural interest, then the Minister may enter that item on the Register.

Pursuant to the provisions of the South Australian Heritage Act, 1978, I, Don Hopgood, Minister for Environment and Planning and Minister for the time being administering the said Act, hereby give notice that I have entered on the Register of State Heritage Items and the items described in The Schedule hereunder.

Items listed in The Schedule were previously placed on an Interim List in accordance with the provisions of Section 15 of the South Australian Heritage Act, 1978. Excepting items owned by the Crown and those within the area of the corporation of the city of Adelaide, the remaining items listed in The Schedule are subject to Part V of the Planning Act, 1982. That Act requires that no development, including demolition, conversion, alteration of, or addition to any item, is permitted without the written consent of the relevant Planning Authority. Items within the area of the corporation of the city of Adelaide are subject to the provisions of the City of Adelaide Development Control Act, 1976.
